Should such a proceeding be had, any person who sees or becomes acquainted with the same may disclose the same to the said trustees. Such proceedings shall be had in the meantime as diligently as circumstances will permit. 6 On appeal, 715 Pennsylvania Avenue, Inc., the corporation who sought summary judgment, argues that the district court abused its discretion in denying the motion. We do not address this issue because the district court did not consider the merits of the plaintiff's complaint. The district court denied summary judgment on the ground that the property had been transferred to 715 Pennsylvania Avenue, Inc. and that the plaintiff had a valid lien on it. The defendant could not challenge the validity of the lien in her answer 7 The district court's order of September 6, 1983, provides, in pertinent part: Upon consideration of the Emergency Motion of the Plaintiff, and the responses thereto, the court makes the following Finding of Fact and Law, (1) The action was filed on October 6, 1982. (2) The Plaintiff's Emergency Motion was filed on August 31, 1983 and the Motion to Dismiss (which was heard on the same day as the Emergency Motion) was filed on September 1, 1983. (3) The order for the Preliminary Injunction was entered on December 2, 1982. (4) On February 26, 1983, the Creditors' Committee was appointed and the proceedings on the Emergency Motion and Motion to Dismiss were continued. (5) On October 6, 1983, the parties appeared before this court pursuant to the previous orders of the court. Q: Why does my 14-year-old daughter "Have an attitude"? The phrase has been used a lot in my neighbourhood these past few weeks. Specifically in the context of: She had an attitude I've only heard this from a colleague at work, probably 60 years old, and I have no idea who the teenaged (14-year-old) girl is that the phrase is used with. Why is it used? Is it just a bad expression that parents use to tell their teens/young children that they have an attitude and are being rude or offensive in
