Video Source Link: Miyabi Imakado is a resident of a special high school for the gifted and talented. She spends her days as the personal assistant to Yukihiro Mashita, one of the few students who don't hate her. One day, she follows his cat Harajuku into the school's woods. Harajuku is a well-known investigator who uses her sharp instincts to sniff out occult cases. She also keeps a cat named Inui as a friend. When confronted with the cat's betrayal, Miyabi is given the chance to save her life by doing one thing: save Yukihiro from being kidnapped by an unknown enemy. As Miyabi travels to the world of magic, she meets and befriends multiple new people, and learns about the secrets of the school. But even though everything seems to be going great, she still has one major case to solve: the headmaster's mysterious disappearance... A manga based on the anime series, by Izumi Matsumoto. The LoveLive! franchise has established itself as one of anime's most successful, period, bringing in a dedicated fan following that is considered one of the largest in the entire industry. The LoveLive! Sunshine!! anime series, however, takes that success even further as it is the grand finale of the main LoveLive! storyline, providing a conclusion that fans will probably be happy with. LoveLive! Sunshine!! is in no way a cancellation of the franchise, instead it is a direct sequel to the one preceding it. But just as anime fans would have expected, LoveLive! Sunshine!! is nothing short of a complete disruption of the very concept of what it is to be
