Q: What's wrong with my induction proof? Prove that $1 + 2 + 3 + \dots + n = \frac{n(n+1)}{2}$ I've thought about this for quite a while and have come up with the following proof that I think is correct. However, I'm having a little trouble checking for flaws and feel the need for some help with checking whether my proof is correct. Thank you for any help.

Theorem: $1 + 2 + 3 + \dots + n = \frac{n(n+1)}{2}$ *Assumption: $1 + 2 + 3 + \dots + k = \frac{k(k+1)}{2}$ for $1 \leq k \leq n$

*Definition: $\frac{1}{2}(k + (n - k)) = k + \frac{n - k}{2}$ Let $k = n$ $\frac{1}{2}(n + (n - n)) = n + \frac{n - n}{2}$ $2n = n + n - n$ $2n = n(n + 1)$ Lemma: $1 + 2 + 3 + \dots + n = \frac{n(n+1)}{2}$

Tip: How to set up a pool in any pool?

Simply add the servers you want to pool at your own pool settings.

Go to Settings / Local settings / Payment methods, then click to Add pool.

Enter the servers' port, pass and server selection to add. Then choose your wallet type. Default wallet type and Advanced are options. The former always works fine, but the latter provides better settings.

Choose Advanced / Payment methods, and pick your 'method'.

The history of the Lands Between: In order to save the world from a dark threat, the Queen of the Elden Court bestowed the rights of the Elden Army on Althea as a reward for her loyalty. Althea and her Elven soldiers soon started to squabble over their rights and the area was in a state of chaos. Althea had been waiting for an opportunity to carry out her vengeance by exterminating her enemies. The gates of the castle suddenly opened and the Elves were surrounded by a force of marauding demon monsters. Althea ordered her troops to kill the Elves and lay waste to the lands. She insisted that the Elves confess their guilt and bear witness to her superiority. She will not stop until she avenges the honor of the Elden Court. The battle is about to start

The human people have forgotten about their origins. They did not notice that their world is decaying and a new breed of demon monsters had emerged from the depths of the Netherworld. Because of their ignorance, they have become weak. Their belief that they will be the only survivors has caused them to fight for survival and the nation was on the brink of disaster. With the arrival of the Elves, the humans felt their presence and received a strong shock. With the increase in numbers, the Elves made two requests: to exterminate the demons and to make peace with the nation. Rather than listen to the concerns of the human people, the Elves opened a portal. As a result, the gateway to the Netherworld was opened, and the demons made their appearance on the Earth and started their eradication. The Elves suddenly appeared from a portal

Share this posting 64 votes for SnOw: A Matter of Masterminds To commemorate the release of the SnOw: A Matter of Masterminds game, I will chronicle the game's first year of existence. When I decided to take the game to Kickstarter, I found there were already several games in the same genre on the market - and that the Kickstarter community had enjoyed the games a lot. After many long hours on the internet I chose to have some help in choosing a graphic designer to improve the overall look of the game. I contracted the services of Adrien, whom I knew from the Blender exporter. During the first quarter of 2017, we will go through various changes: We will move from 1 year old Stretch goals to more connected goals. We will launch our own online multiplayer. We will release a portable version of the game. More game modes will arrive. (Among them, two will be introduced in the first days of the release). More environments will appear. And less mastermindedly, many improvements will arrive. For example, the lighting should now be much more natural. During this year, the game will grow twice: the first time in the story and the second time for more maps, more heroes... This first quarter of the year will contain a large amount of art and content. The second quarter of 2017 will focus more on the gameplay side of the game (more maps, more heroes, quests,...). Another goal is to find people to join
