Q: Facebook: is it possible to use the message dialog to send links from php? I want to send links from php. Is it possible to use the message dialog of facebook for that? A: I don't think that you can use the Facebook API to send a Facebook Message (or any third-party API). But you can use Facebook pages with a PHP SDK and then show a message within the embedded dialog. More information on using Facebook pages: That said, sending messages with Facebook is not very common.
