Why A Career In Music Is Better Than Any Other Career A Career In Music Is Better Than Any Other Career A Career In Music Is Better Than Any Other Career - It is hard to imagine that a career in music is not as lucrative as any other career. If you are a serious music fan, you may agree that it pays a lot to be in the music industry. Since the beginning, the music industry has done a great deal to pave way for musicians. This is why people are so much into it. However, most people choose other careers in the countries they live in due to the fact that it is less lucrative compared to a career in music. It is important to note that the music industry has been transformed over the years due to the fact that it has not done enough to fight against other companies that are fierce competitors such as the internet, radio and TV. Many people in the music industry complain of small earnings in the industry but if you ask the executives in the industry, they will still say that there is still a lot in the industry that has not been done. The profits in the music industry is not as impressive as it was in the past and many people in the industry still struggle to make some of these profits. However, the musician should not be worried as this is where they can make their living and perform at the concerts or give fans memorable music that will make them enjoy the music in whatever the venue. The music industry is indeed a great place to be. You will meet people who share the same passion with you and this is the best part of being a musician. The industry has come a long way as far as the internet is concerned. The chance of you earning a good living in the music industry is not high as compared b7e8fdf5c8
