Highlights include: System-generated artificial intelligence has been improved by up to 75 percent on FIFA Ultimate Team, allowing opponents to adapt more quickly to your team's tactics and strategies. Players will experience constant movement within every direction; players will jump from their game positions, move, challenge, receive passes, challenge and counter-attack. New face and neck physics means more accurate, realistic facial expressions and animations, and more accurate cuts, tears and swellings. Over-the-top console-quality player development (PDA) allows you to craft your own superstars from scratch. "We've increased the number of layers in the simulation system, allowing us to have more control over the positioning of players," said Matt Prior, Senior Producer at EA SPORTS. "Artificial intelligence is also improving, allowing opponents to adapt to your tactics more quickly, challenging you in ways you're not used to." "We've now been able to improve player physics, which has a large impact on player movement and authenticity," said Jeff Pobst, Director of FIFA development. "This includes significantly improved facial expressions, working skin, and more accurate cuts, tears and swellings." The ambition and depth of the gameplay and player-generation engine have been improved, allowing you to craft your own superstars from scratch. New demos of the Superstar Creator give you the tools and information you need to craft your own superstar. More on FIFA 22 gameplay: FIFA 22 is the first in the series to use a new next-gen engine: FIFA 18' engine used a more traditional physics model, so we're able to push the simulation further and enhance certain gameplay aspects. A list of game-changing engine features includes: New physics model based on better understanding of the way the world feels. Features a completely new system that applies more physical constraints on the physics engine, allowing for more realistic gameplay. System-generated AI. We have achieved a 75 percent improvement in AI system logic, which will drive future innovations in our gameplay. From teammates providing cover or blocking shots to opponents detecting back passes, your opponents are in for a surprise when you make them adapt to your strategy. New face and neck model allows for an even more realistic facial and head animations, with more depth than ever before. With improved physics and enhanced facial animations

Features Key:

- FIFA 22 introduces all-new techniques, such as sprints to help players make sharp cuts when carrying the ball, and manual saves on every shot. This is supported by the brand new Ball Physics system that focuses on the unique physics of the ball when passing, shooting, shooting on goal, turning, and getting fouled.
- Players will also benefit from new Touch Control scheme, offering players greater control of the timing and execution of passing and shooting on weaker surfaces.
- The addition of Climactic Atmospheres has been toned down this year, and more subtle touches, such as rush of air coming off a player's shirt, are also in.
- And there are now 29 International Teams, 23 of which have been re-imagined from the ground up.
- FIFA Ultimate Team keeps gamers using their heads with updates to How You Perform, Obituaries, and Set Pieces. Every moment is now under even greater scrutiny in the new Soccernomics view.
- The FIFA Ultimate Team is now reinvented with over 50 million cards to build and play with. Card names will have cards coming from new and old squads, as well as cards coming from UEFA clubs and National Teams.
- Leaderboards are on a monthly basis for your fun and bragging rights.
- Details on each leaderboard submission are available to the public, which can also be downloaded in excel format so fans can make their own sort of ranking.
- EA's FIFA Ultimate Team and FIFA Ultimate Team Seasons features are FIFA themed, letting you go on long unbeaten streaks and unlock bonuses.
- New Career Mode challenges and Micro-transactions are available, in which gamers have the chance to upgrade players, get more cards and purchase professional contracts.
