Human beings are both the most common life form in the galaxy, and the only ones with enough brains to wonder about the wider cosmos. A controversial and often feared race, human beings are also the most numerous in the empire. They are a diverse and varied group, from the austere red-glowing Purifiers who live in isolation to the decadent hive-minds of the decadent hedonists. If you encounter one another in the galaxy, you'll find that all humans are different - but that doesn't stop any of them from being very similar! Features: Humanoid Civics and new Origin New ship models Five new ship portraits Three new ship VO sets Three remixed music tracks Six new voices for VIR Two new planets A galactic map where every habitable planet is highlighted Two new "Galaxy" technologies New unit spritesQ: Keep a div centred while the browser resizes Hello and good morning! I have a div, which will not stay on centre of page, so I need to refresh it's css: width:100%; float:center; It works, except for when I resize the page, it positions itself outside the page (near the right border) This is the div code: Point 1 I do not want to use Javascript as this is the page used for an extension I am working on. Thanks for any help! A: Unless you have a very good reason for positioning absolutely, you need to set the relative positioning style to the element and then apply float: If you need position: absolute; you can change that to position: relative;. You also need to remember not to set width to 100%, use width: 100%; This is the structure that should work for you:

Place it in the above above mentioned folder.Q: Create a new page which is out of the way I am wondering how to create a new web page which is in the side bar and the user can select that page to see the content in the middle. I have been searching for an answer and I found: which use a side bar that is fixed and when the user will click on an url which is there in side bar it will take user to the page in the middle of the site. This is what I want exactly but I do not want to use the sidebar. I want a page or new page that is in the side bar. When user will click on that page it will take user to the middle of the site. (I am still learning how to code in web programming) I am asking the question here because I am not sure about the other questions as I do not understand the answers and I want to know if what I want to ask is possible or not? Please ask me if there is something that is unclear. Thanks in advance. A: Just use a frameset or a iframe and you can hide them with CSS. Then you can decide whether to have sidebars, topbars or footers depending on your design. This will have some limitations - for example, you will have to create a frame for every non main content element. Also, elements in the middle won't be as accessible as you might like - you'd have to find other ways around them. To simplify, just imagine the site as having frames all the way down the page. Remove everything except the main content and then hide the sidebars, topbars and footers with CSS. Monday, January 15, 2016 I have a smidgen of a secret that I would like to share with you all. I have album) Majula Frontier Soundtrack album is the soundtrack album to the unreleased science fiction film Majula Frontier, released in 1972. The soundtrack was released on vinyl record and cassette tape in December 1972 with the album cover features the Majula Frontier poster art. The vinyl record releases features additional music including the Majula Frontier score soundtrack songs and original sound samples which are released on single vinyl releases. The soundtrack album features the Majula Frontier original motion picture score performed by Mollenhauer/Shervart-Voisin and the music tracks for 6 original Majula Frontier sound samples, since discovered in the recording sessions of Leisure Time Studio. Also features the Majula Frontier Poster Art. A Majula Frontier sound sample cassette was also released featuring the original Majula Frontier score soundtrack plus the original Majula Frontier sound samples. The Majula Frontier soundtrack music has not been heard since until the release of the Majula Frontier: The Official Soundtrack album in 2012. Track listing References Category:Film soundtracks Category:1972 soundtracks Category:Science fiction film soundtracksCircuit breaking Circuit breaking refers to the practice of deciding whether an act is a felony or a misdemeanor purely by the court's assessment of the mens rea component of the relevant conduct or, instead, refers to taking actions to reduce the consequences of certain criminal conduct. Circuit-breaking as it applies to conduct is a special application of the doctrine of mens rea which prevents punishment for conduct that lacks intent. Circuit breaking and the retention of mens rea First degree murders generally require malice aforethought, or intent to kill, and/or knowledge of an intent to kill. In particular, first degree murder is defined under the Murder Act (1910) in terms of murders committed with malice aforethought; with a premeditated design to effect the death of any human being, or With a mind so hardened that, when the mind became inflamed by passion, the mind was incapable of forming an intent to kill. Whether a person's mind is "hardened" at the time of committing murder has traditionally been viewed as a jury question. It is difficult to be "so inflamed with passion as to be incapable of forming the intent to kill". The test with intent murder has been that of a judge. The defendant is entitled to an instruction on voluntary manslaughter, so it is clear that

With teamwork, and a full arsenal of powerful weapons and equipment, you can succeed in your rebellion battle to save the resistance and end this nightmare. Features: 100+ missions 10+ unique weapons 6+ distinct game modes AI responds to your actions (e.g. fall off a ledge and they'll jump in front of you) Steamworks integration In-game achievements Local only Fully optimized for steam users Fully optimized for high-end computers PC Only No PlayStation Network account needed Ranked & unranked matches Anyone can play, regardless of skills 4 players local & 2 players online 12 against 12 for local & 4 against 4 for online Server browser Match creation system No random hot-swapping, instead you get a new opponent for your next match Steam Early Access Support & Updates: All future updates and new content will be released as full version updates Gamers who bought this title will be notified of game updates We'll respond to you, and sometimes review your game Content Patch Notes General: Weapons Combine Assault Rifle: Now has the ability to be dual-wielded. The gun is slow to reload. Each shot can't fire at the same time, however you can use an alternate fire key to fire faster. Dual-wielding the weapon will give it a faster reload time. This is most useful when it's close to reloading. Combine Shotgun: New Attack Impact Damage Modifier. This reduces the damage you receive from the shotgun. Overwatch Fixed a bug where DMRs would not return to you when you return from spectator. Unified Music Menu Combine Weapons have changed sound effects Particle FX Combine weapons now have an effect particle that's visible in the middle of the fire range. Collision Physics All Combine weapons now have a close-to-ground collision effect which should make enemy weapons more effective when in close proximity to Combine
