Its development is closely linked to the economic and social development of a country, or the world, as the case may be. Therefore, when the state of the economy degrades, the technology sector will suffer. There is a close relationship between the economic and the technological development of countries. In view of this, it is necessary to have a good understanding of the role of technology in the economy for a clearer and deeper understanding of the challenges before us. Let's look at some of these challenges. The role of technology in the economy The Occ13bf012

It is made up of the Strafgesetzbuch (as amended by the Strafgesetzbuchgesetz), the Kammergericht and the Bundesgerichtshof (the Courts of the Federal Republic of Germany). The German criminal law is based on the Criminal Procedure Code (Bundesprozessordnung; BPO), which defines the roles and procedures of the different courts and the German constitution. Strafgesetzbuch The German criminal law and procedure is governed by the German criminal code, which is divided into 25 titles and more than 150 articles. The German criminal code is supplemented by a number of administrative acts and other statutes. Courts The German criminal law is administered by three different types of courts. The first is a criminal court (), which has jurisdiction over all crimes of which the perpetrator is guilty and is a criminal under German law and which can be punished by a sentence of up

Military and civilian planes carrying food and medicine will fly thousands of kilometres from Iraq to the neighbouring Turkey, where the foreign nationals will be flown back to Europe, Interior Minister Christophe Castaner told RTL radio. "The aim of this operation is to send an initial wave of aid... which will then be sent to other countries, Italy in particular," he said. "A huge humanitarian corridor is being organised... We will make sure that this humanitarian mission is made to go as far as possible," Castaner added. France's foreign ministry announced last month that the bodies of four female academics were recovered in the Syrian city of Aleppo last week, but this was not confirmed by the government. On October 9 and 10 a total of 49 foreign academics were killed when their buses were struck by a wave of Russian airstrikes on rebel-held districts of Aleppo in Syria. An UN report on the incident found that "there was a near-total lack of protection" for the buses transporting the academics, many of whom were from Jordan, which has many Syrian refugees. The investigation also revealed that the Assad regime and its ally Russia were "responsible for the attack". - 'Not a total defeat' - Castaner said that he did not want to give any details of the security measures used to evacuate "people who should not remain there", but that, "
