Finding the right kind of music and using your imagination can make the world seem like a very pleasant place. There are many books on the market that you can use to learn about hypnosis. All the schools use very simple methods, like these to teach you how to learn how to heal yourself. Most of all, you have to concentrate on the idea and let your body do what it was built to do. I suggest you do everything you can to learn how to create your own hypnosis with your own mental needs and wants. Relax your hands and arms if they are tensed. Place one palm over the other. This is your subconscious working through your subconscious mind. Your subconscious mind is your "Power Center" This center runs your entire body and your entire life. So, let's start at the beginning and start creating your own subtlety trance state. In order to get into a state of hypnosis, you have to let go of everything that is breaking your spirit right now. Let your body be relaxed, but your mind must be focused. You should be experiencing only pleasant things. So, imagine you are on a very soothing beach or at a remote lodge. Set your thoughts in this place and allow your breathing to relax as well.
