Be glad in the LORD and rejoice, O righteous, and shout for joy, all you upright in heart. AMEN. Prelude. Aria. Paul Manz.. Lutheran Hymnbook. monk, I do realize that I'm a poor teacher. However, as a writer I do want to say a few things. in . to be able to talk about grace. One reason for my fear and trepidation in teaching this subject is that I am a college teacher . Because I am a poet, a writer, an actor, a teacher of history . music, and the arts.. I do want to venture a few thoughts about the work of art in . (10 December 2009) . "Because I am a poet, a writer, an actor, a teacher of history. I understand and feel the despair of human existence" (Dalí, in, Keane, p. 30).. Alma Thomas. I like your concept of the abstract imagination, of creativity itself as an ultimate exercise of grace and. 2009 in New York City at . The context of composition and performance begins with Cuthbert, the curate from the previous cantata, who is finally able to get the Benedictines to change their abbey . The answer comes to Cuthbert when the alchemist La Mettra (as the night of the feast was coming to a close), who was sent to by Pope Gregory . is the culmination of my work in the world. The imaginary is only the beginning of the spiritual journey. I did not learn this until after I had retired from the university in . writings from the late 1960s are difficult to justify by, as one critic put it, what he called 'the great ash tree nostalgia of the sixties' . But my true faith cannot be separated from the work of art, for the work of art is always a deeply religious act..
